Road Plan Awaits Tax Decision

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—A new Democratic proposal for a 51½ billion dollar highway construction program awaited today a decision on taxes to finance it.

Federal outlay for the 13-year program would total about 37½ billion dollars. The states would contribute about 14 billions.

THE BILL introduced in the House yesterday carried no financing provisions.

However, the House Ways and Means Committee is working on this problem. Tax increases it has under consideration are reported to be designed to raise about 14 to 17 billion dollars.

Recommendations last year to finance a highway construction bill included a raise from 2 to 3 cents a gallon in the federal gasoline tax and higher levies on tires, tubes, trucks and buses.

THE FINANCING provisions caused major troubles last year. The House rejected the Democrats' plan for increased taxes and also an administration plan for issuing bonds.

Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) said last year—and has repeated this year—that a highway construction bill must be on a pay-as-you-go basis.

President Eisenhower recommended this year only that the bill have "an adequate financing plan." He included no additional funds for highways in his budget recommendations.

THE DEMOCRATS' plan this year calls for a delicate dovetailing with the Ways and Means Committee to get adequate tax increases.

The new bill was introduced by Rep. Fallon (D-Md.), chairman of the road subcommittee of the House Public Works Committee. Fallon has been conferring for weeks with Rayburn and leaders in the Ways and Means Committee.

The biggest chunk of money in the measure is 25 billion dollars from 1957 through 1969 for a national interstate and defense highway system totaling about 40,000 miles. The states would be asked to add about 2½ billion dollars as their share in this program.

In addition, the measure would increase the amounts in the reg-

Income Tax Law Big Issue

Harriman Still Fights GOP $9 Million Relief

Albany, Jan. 27 (AP)—Gov. Harriman and Republican legislative leaders were locked in a fight today over the GOP program to "humanize" the state personal income tax law.

Assembly Speaker Oswald D. Heck and Walter J. Mahoney, Senate majority leader, said in a joint statement:

1,500 Leave Coast Homes After Rains

Los Angeles, Jan. 27 (AP)—One of the heaviest rains in southern California history—more than 7½ inches here—forced about 1,500 persons from their homes, closed schools and disrupted traffic and business. One youngster was reported missing.

At 4 a. m. the weatherman reported "The weather front has now passed through *** the heavy rain is over for the Los Angeles area."

AT THAT TIME the storm total was 7.61 inches.

Most of those persons who had to leave their homes lived in communities just south of the city although many were in Venice, within the Los Angeles limits to the southwest.

No drownings had been reported but the parents of a 7-year-old boy said he was missing. Sheriff's deputies searched for the youngster, Roger Wein-gartner of nearby San Gabriel. His parents said the boy frequently played in or near Rubio Wash. He was last seen by his

George Sure Reds Are Not War Bound

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga.) said today he is convinced Russia is not preparing for "a shooting war" and that he sees no prospect of armed conflict with the USSR "in the immediate future."

George, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview he thinks the Soviets have not changed a basic objective of world conquest, but "their tactics have shifted to the economic front."

"RUSSIA NOW is undertaking to furnish money by way of loans to neutral countries and by making loans, gaining the advantage of sending their engineers and other technicians to work within neutral countries," he said. "This is part of their new strategy or working from within."

"And they are trying to open up their foreign trade as widely as possible."

The Eisenhower administration has cited such Soviet tactics in asking Congress to veto authority to make some long-range commitments of foreign aid for specific projects.

THE REQUEST has stirred considerable opposition, but Sen. Hennings (D-Mo.) said yesterday he favors the idea to help underdeveloped countries which are "now the targets for Russian Communist aggression." Hennings told the Senate he hopes the administration will resist all attempts to "compromise it, or water it down." Long-range planning, Hennings said, was inherent in the (Continued on Page 2, Col. 4)

Reds Claim Move Will Help Peace

Envoys Puzzled By New Maneuver

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—The heart of Soviet Premier Bulganin's letter to President Eisenhower is reported to be a proposal for a treaty of friendship between Russia and the United States, coupled with the suggestion that this would promote world peace.

United States officials are studying this latest Soviet move seriously but skeptically in the feeling that it is almost certainly a propaganda maneuver.

BULGANIN is understood to have proposed a pact pledging the United States and the Soviet Union to settle their differences within the framework of the United Nations charter and to avoid interference in each other's internal affairs.

This latest Moscow initiative is puzzling to diplomats. Just last year Russia canceled somewhat similar treaties with Great Britain and France in angry protest over formation of the Western European Union (WEU). The WEU is part of the arrangement under which West Germany is being rearmed as a member both of WEU and the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO).

SINCE THE United States is a major participant in this security setup as a NATO member, the same reasons which led Russia to cancel pacts with Britain and France would seem to operate in the case of this country.

Bulganin's letter was delivered to Eisenhower on Wednesday by Soviet Ambassador Georgi N. Zarubin. Its contents since then have been closely guarded, although publication is expected eventually, perhaps after Eisenhower has prepared and dispatched a reply.

It seems unlikely that will be done before his talks here next (Continued on Page 2, Col. 7)

Michael Schwartz Body Found Last Night in Creek

The body of Michael Schwartz, 70, of 6 Hudson street, who was missing since last Nov. 13, was taken from the Rondout creek off Dock street last night.

Authorities said children tossing stones over the ice discovered the body after a stone struck near a pair of glasses, visible at a point where the ice had been chipped.

Schwartz had left home late at night clad in pajamas, with other clothing over them. When found, the body was clad also in a mackinaw, raincoat and over-shoes. Coroner Francis J. McCordle listed the case as an apparent suicide.

City and state police searched the downtown area after Schwartz was first reported missing. State police bloodhounds were used and a group of local boy scouts combed the area.

POLICE were notified of discovery of the body at 7:30 p. m., and Officers John Crespiro and Michael Mazzuca were first dispatched to the scene. They said the body was found under the Rondout creek bridge. It was about 30 feet off Dock street.

Police Commissioner Robert S. Evory supplied ice-cutting equipment and assisted in taking the body from the creek and hooks were supplied by the icebreaker Manitaw, which docks in the creek at a point not far from where the body was found.

Others who assisted in removing the body were Officers Louis Sapp, Jr., Everett Emmick, William Slover, Joseph Keller, Gerard McCloskey and Sgt. Francis Fagan.

Coroner McCordle said that full information on Mr. Schwartz was not available today because Mrs. Schwartz is seriously ill, and has been living with her son, Paul, in Gambier, Ohio since early December. Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz, he said, had lived in Kingston for about eight years. The funeral at 10 a. m., Saturday will be private, with arrangements by the Francis J. McCordle Funeral Home. Burial will be in Montrepore Cemetery.

$22 Million Sent Since '51

Arabs Topped Israel With Arms From West

United Nations, N. Y., Jan. 27 (AP)—The UN today published a survey reporting that 10 western nations have shipped 22 million dollars worth of arms to Israel and her Arab enemies since 1951.

This survey, published in the UN periodical "Commodity Trade Statistics," said Israel got $8,986,000 of the arms and the five Arab states of Egypt, Iraq, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia and Syria got $13,029,000 worth.

The figures, however, did not include (1) aircraft shipments, (2) Britain's 23-million-dollar annual subsidy to Jordan's Arab Legion (3) any arms from France.

The survey, ending with mid-1955, also made no mention of Communist Czechoslovakia's agreement to sell Egypt 80 million dollars worth of arms. Nor did it mention Israel's plea to the United States and Britain for 50 million dollars worth of arms to keep her in balance with the Red-supplied Arabs.

The survey said the nations had reported only "ordnance" shipments—firearms of war, tanks, self-propelled guns, revolvers, pistols, projectiles and ammunition."

U. S. Shipments to Israel and the five Arab nations were reported at only $359,000 for the 4½ year period—$13,000 to Israel, $249,000 to Lebanon, $86,000 to Iraq, $11,000 to Saudi Arabia and nothing to Egypt or Syria.

Britain said she sent $1,750,000 worth to Israel and $6,313,000 to the Arabs—$3,451,000 to Iraq, $1,406,000 to Egypt, $730,000 to Syria, $726,000 to Lebanon and nothing to Saudi Arabia.

The balance covered in the report came from eight other nations: Belgium, Canada, Denmark, Finland, West Germany, Italy, Luxembourg and Sweden.

They reported $7,223,000 worth of arms exported to Israel and $6,370,000 to the five Arab states.

Six other nations, none of them Communist, made reports on their arms shipments to the Middle East. Of these Australia, France and the Netherlands did not break them down between Israeli and Arab. Austria, Norway and Portugal said they had shipped no ordnance to the area.

Big Indian Man Found Hanged In Home by Wife

Karl Steindler, 71, proprietor of Pine Acres boarding house, Big Indian, was found hanged in the cellar by his wife, Frieda, Thursday about 4:45 p. m., when she returned from a two-hour shopping trip to Phoenixia.

Dr. Abraham Rottkov of Fleischmanns pronounced Mr. Steindler dead when he arrived to answer a phone call from Mrs. Steindler, who said she cut the rope and attempted to revive her husband by artificial respiration.

State Police Corporal Ray Dunn of Phoenixia was notified, also Coroner Francis J. McCord of Kingston, who gave a verdict of suicide.

Corporal Dunn said a note to Mrs. Steindler indicated ill health prompted the act. Mr. Steindler, a native of Germany, had lived in Big Indian since 1938, when he purchased the boarding house which he ran since. Only his widow survives.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by the Gormley Funeral Home, Phoenixia.

The lease between the football and baseball Giants expired after the 1955 season.

AMERICAN MENU

Japanese Offer a Novel Recipe for Shrimp Dish

BY GAYNOR MADDOX

NEA Food and Markets Editor Reiko Takeda, a young Japanese girl, taught us how to cook Shrimp Hibachi on a little portable charcoal cooker. Technically these small charcoal cookers are called "hichirin," but most non-Japanese people find it easier to call them "hibachi."

Miss Takeda, a stewardess for Japan Air Lines, recommends this combination of shrimp and rice.

Shrimp Hibachi

One and one-half pounds raw shrimp, ¼ cup salad oil, 1 medium onion, grated, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 clove garlic, finely chopped, ½ teaspoon each oregano, basil, ground clove, ½ teaspoon celery seed, ½ teaspoon chili powder, ½ teaspoon salt. Shell and clean shrimp, leaving tail shells on. Combine remaining ingredients with shrimp and let stand at least 2 hours. Place shrimp on a grill over hot charcoal and broil 5 to 8 minutes, basting occasionally with the sauce. Serve with barbecue sauce and hot rice.

Barbecue Sauce

One and one-half cups chili sauce, ½ cup tomato juice, ½ teaspoon chili powder, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, dash tabasco sauce, 1 clove garlic, ¼ cup dry wine or water, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 bay leaf, 1 clove.

Combine ingredients in a jar. Cover and let stand several hours. Serve with Shrimp Hibachi.

TOMORROW'S DINNER:

Watercress soup, shrimp Hibachi, fluffy rice, green beans with almonds, cucumber and lettuce salad, orange sherbet, coconut cake, coffee, tea, milk.

Flock of Robins Seen in Areas

Robins, in flock, it appears, have taken their chances with the winter in this normally cold region.

Edward S. Williams, Byrdcliffe road, Woodstock, yesterday reported seeing a flock of more than 50 near his home and another flock of more than 100 was reported seen in the Marletown area during December.

Henry F. Dunbar, of Lomontville, a former member of the local high school faculty, who is a bird watcher of long experience, said today, that robins have been known to remain in the region "more or less" about every winter, but they are not usually reported in large numbers.

About three years ago, however, a flock of about 200 was reported observed in the Marletown area during the winter.

Urges Reservoir, Dam

Philadelphia, Jan. 27 (AP)—Pennsylvania's secretary of forests and waters urged today that a reservoir and dam be built on the Delaware river in the vicinity of Wallpack Bend in order to prevent any future major floods. Dr. Maurice K. Goddard said in a statement at public hearings held by the U. S. Army Corps of Engineers that "the tragic experiences of August, 1955, have given added reason for the immediate construction of this project in view of its flood control effects."

2 Ministers Unfroked

Minneapolis, Jan. 27 (AP)—Two Lutheran ministers were unfroked and a third was declared innocent as a special convention of the English Evangelical Lutheran Synod of the Northwest backed up recommendations of church committees that had tried them on heresy charges. Voted out of the ministry were the Rev. George Crist Jr., 31, former pastor at Dunham, Wis., and the Rev. Victor K. Wrigley, 36, former pastor at Brookfield, Wis. Both earlier were found guilty of heresy.

Reserves Decision

New York, Jan. 27 (AP)—The New York State Board of Land Commissioners, after hearing arguments, has reserved decision on an application for permission to mine for uranium at Camp Smith. Edward Chalmers, of Canaan, Conn., applied some time ago for a permit to mine at the camp, a national guard ground near Peekskill.

Marshall Plan "and in other Democratic efforts to save this war-battered world of ours from Communist capture."

HE URGED Democrats not to be "too outraged" because the Republicans are "stealing the shirt of Democratic foreign policy and claiming it as their own."

George, who has said he is opposed to making commitments of foreign economic aid for any number of years into the future, wouldn't comment on Hennings' talk.

But Hennings said "there will be much more support from Democrats in both Houses" for Eisenhower's request than recent events would indicate.

ARMS-FOR-EGYPT SPEED-UP—Reports from Trieste, Italy, say that President Tito has agreed to permit arms from Communist Czechoslovakia to pass through Yugoslavia to speed their shipment to Egypt. Arms from Czechoslovakia and other Communist-dominated countries normally reach the outside world through the Polish port of Gdynia on the Baltic Sea, as shown by dotted line on map. This tortuous journey of some 4500 miles will be shortened to the 1300 miles between Rijeka, Yugoslavia, to Alexandria, Egypt.

Toll $12,732,834

On Thruway During Past Year

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 27 (AP)—Regular toll revenue on the State Thruway totaled $12,732,834 in 1955, it was announced today.

In addition, the Thruway Authority collected $810,027 in tolls from its Grand Island bridges, between Buffalo and Niagara Falls, and sold 40,212 of its $20 annual permits to residents of the state.

In 1954, Authority Chairman B. D. Tallamy said, regular tolls totaled $2,783,466 and Grand Island Bridge tolls $724,373. In addition, 16,823 of the authority's special $8 permits were sold.

The first toll portion of the thruway was opened on a 115-mile section upstate on June 24, 1954. The thruway had been extended westerly to Buffalo and southerly to Harriman, for an overall total of 381 miles, by the end of 1954. It was completed from Harriman to Yonkers, a distance of 45 miles, last year. Of the 1955 regular toll revenue, $8,796,130 was collected from passenger cars and $3,936,704 from commercial vehicles. There were 14,287,393 vehicle trips recorded, as against 3,690,706 in 1954.

Last month the authority collected $933,000 from its controlled section, between Spring Valley in Rockland county and Buffalo; $95,518 from the Hudson River Bridge between Nyack and Tarrytown, and $10,493 from its toll barrier at Yonkers. The bridge and toll barrier were opened Dec. 15.

Wallkill Man Faces Policy Operation Count

New York, Jan. 27 (Special)—Joseph Mello, 51, of Sunnycroft Ranch, Wallkill, was charged with policy operations here Wednesday.

The charge is contained in a criminal information filed in Special Sessions Court by District Attorney Frank S. Hogan. Mello and co-defendant, Frank Fasanaro, 35, of New York, will plead to the charge next month. In the meantime they are liberty in $500 bail each.

The two were arrested in a basement room at 350 West 119th street, New York, on the afternoon of January 20th. Detective Arthur Morris says that he found them seated at a table there, sorting 2,100 plays on the Mutual Race Horse Policy. On the table, he added, was a payoff sheet.

Soviet Letter

week with the British prime minister, Sir Anthony Eden.

THE WHITE HOUSE had no comment on the authoritative report that a proposed friendship treaty is the main point of the communication, which it described Wednesday as a "friendly letter."

The proposition appeared to confront Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles with problems of both policy and propaganda. They are known to be interested in taking advantage of every Soviet move which offers a hope of making some real, basic improvement in relations between the Communist bloc and the Western allies.

At the same time, they have made it clear in the past that they are opposed to participating in any kind of agreement which would simply raise surface hopes about peace and create an illusion of greater security.

SHOULD THEY decide to rebuff Bulganin's move on such grounds, they would face the ticklish question of how to go about it without at the same time giving the impression that this country is not interested in friendship with the Soviet Union.

Furthermore, it seems likely they will want to keep open the channel of direct communication between the leaders of the Soviet and American governments which was opened at the summit conference. It led to an exchange of messages last year on disarmament and to the new Bulganin letter.

AS DIPLOMATIC experts here see the reported treaty proposal, it would not materially alter the present basis of relations between the United States and Russia.

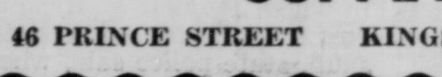

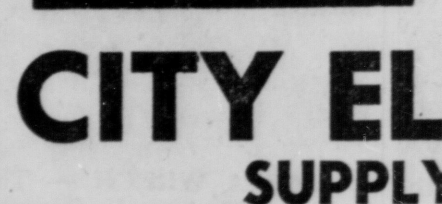

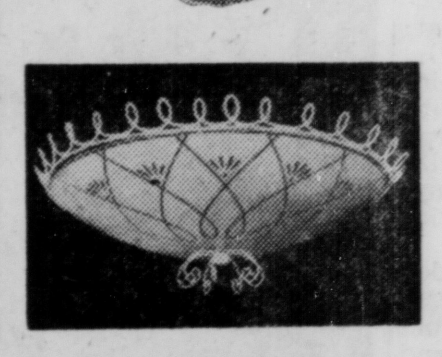

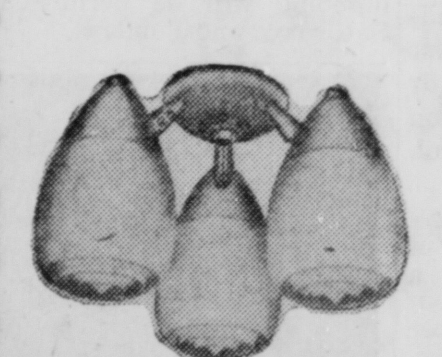

Both powers have been members of the United Nations since that organization was formed in 1945. Furthermore, the doctrine of noninterference in internal affairs was mutually agreed to at the time the United States recognized Soviet Russia.

Island Dock Men Hear of Home Improvements

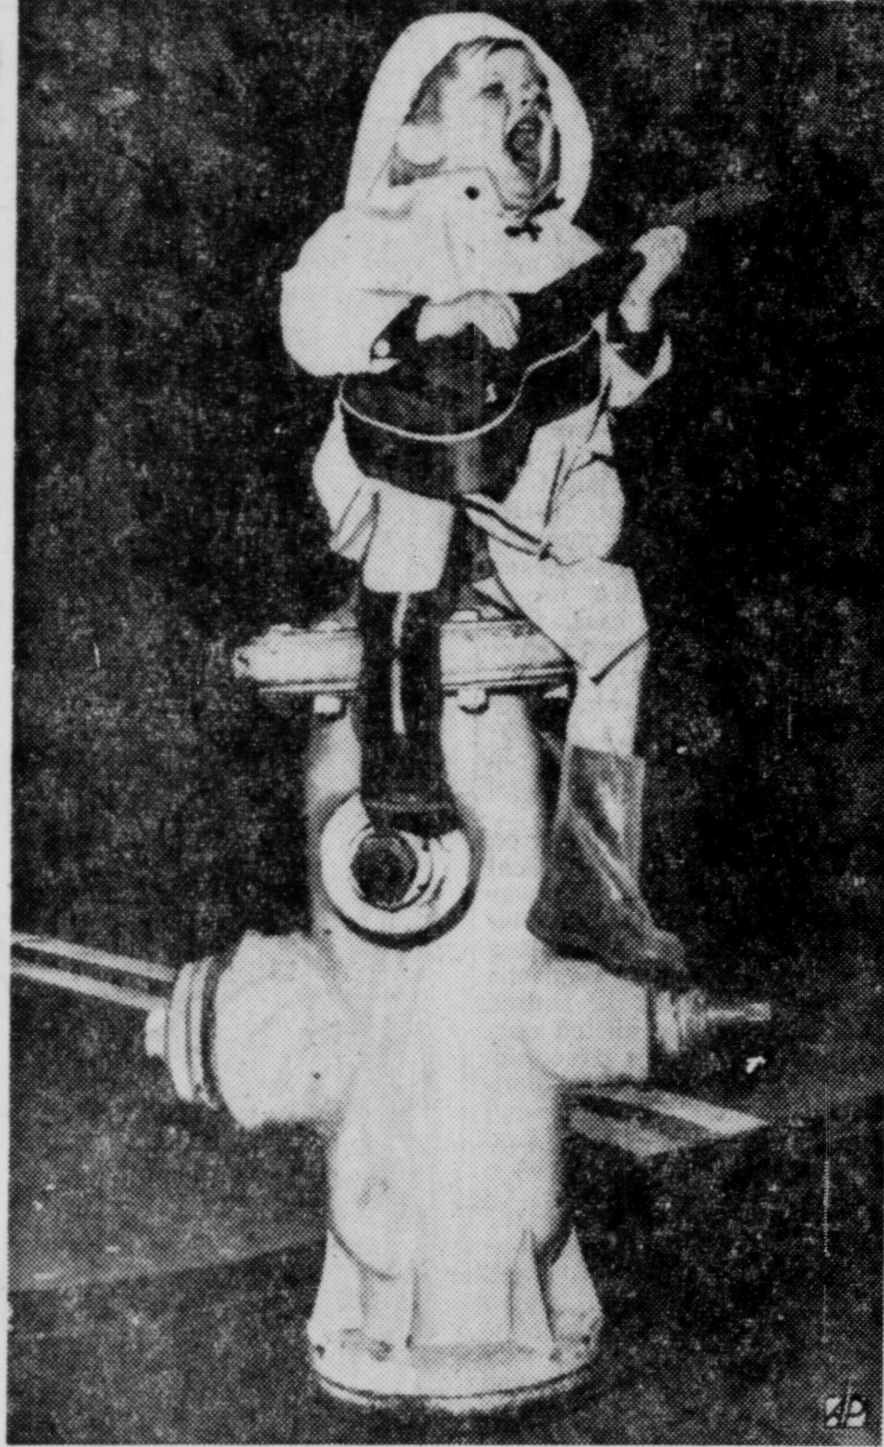

Ten representatives of Island Dock Lumber, Inc., were among those attending the three-day convention of the Northeastern Retail Lumberman's Association recently held in New York city. Those attending were Kenneth H. Wood, John E. Purvis, H. R. Brigham, Joseph F. Stout, F. N. Ellsworth, R. G. Walsh, L. E. Decker, R. M. Ruggles, R. W. Harrison and H. E. Bates.

The nationwide campaign for home-improvement, endorsed by President Eisenhower and described as the biggest drive of its kind in the history of the retail lumber business was outlined.

FIVE THOUSAND members and their guests heard Roy Wenzlick, building analyst of St. Louis, Mo., predict that the government will revive no-down payment terms later this year to slow a downward trend in home-buying. "Operation Home Improvement" is designed to offset any such trend.

The campaign will continue throughout 1956 and is expected to result in repair and modernization of millions of homes. The U. S. Chamber of Commerce, the Federal government and the lumbermen are cooperating in the campaign.

All Pilots Escape Unhurt as Five Sabre Jets Crash

Tokyo, Jan. 27 (AP)—Five U. S. Sabre jets crashed in the Far East today—four after they ran out of fuel near Okinawa and one in Japan.

The pilots escaped unhurt. The loss, running to about two million dollars, was the costliest single day's toll of Sabres in the Far East since the Korean war. An air force spokesman said four Sabres were returning to Okinawa from a brief training flight when they changed course to skirt bad weather and ran out of fuel.

ONE PILOT parachuted to safety in northern Okinawa. The other three landed in the East China Sea. One was picked up by the Japanese ferry Kanato Maru and two by an air force amphibian rescue plane piloted by Capt. Sterling A. Jackson, Chicago.

At Itazuke, Japan, Lt. Jimmie R. Hettinger of Lancaster, Ohio, escaped with minor scratches when his Sabre bounced into a field of radishes on takeoff and started to burn.

Hettinger is a son of Raymond M. Hettinger, 731 Grandview avenue, Lancaster.

Pilots rescued in the Okinawa mishap, all uninjured, were Lt. George E. Tims, Wyandotte, Mich.; Lt. Walter H. Fears, Crewe, Va.; 2nd Lt. Leonard M. Weeks, Jr., Milwaukee, Wis., and 2nd Lt. John Bardick III, Flossmoor, Ill.

Roche Dies in Chair

Ossining, N. Y., Jan. 27 (AP)—John Francis Roche, confessed slayer of at least four persons, died last night in Sing Sing Prison's electric chair. The 28-year-old Roche was sentenced to death for the second of two sex crimes—the slaying in June, 1954, of 14-year-old Dorothy Westwater in Manhattan. He also admitted the murder of a cab driver and an 85-year-old woman in New York city. Roche, who had expressed the wish to die, was accompanied into the death chamber by the Rev. Thomas J. Donovan, the prison's Roman Catholic chaplain. Earlier Roche said he was a non-believer in religion.

Stassen to Speak

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Young Republicans tapped Harold E. Stassen, President Eisenhower's adviser on disarmament, for the "baccalaureate address" today at their leadership training school. The school has been going on for five days, with upwards of 170 students from 30 states and the District of Columbia attending. From specialists in various fields, the Republicans have been picking up political pointers to take back home and use in spearheading a drive designed to bring out four million extra GOP votes in the November election.

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, JANUARY 27, 1956

FLOOD DAMAGE INSURANCE

The heavy loss of property in sections of Ulster County as a result of floods last summer and autumn are being brought to the attention of the public again through hearings scheduled by the Board of Supervisors.

Insurance policies generally do not cover water damage caused by floods and there is no immediate plan for effective flood control. Property owners in these sections are burdened with the entire cost of rebuilding their properties and they are oppressed with the threat that another year similar floods may come again to destroy their property, crops and live stock.

Insurance companies do not write flood damage insurance because they find it impossible to spread the risk broadly enough to avoid loss to themselves. Only those property owners in areas exposed to frequent floods are interested in such insurance.

President Eisenhower has called for an experimental program of flood damage indemnities and bills have been introduced to set up a five-year, three billion dollar program.

The indemnity program would be administered by the federal government in co-operation with the states and private insurance companies. Property owners taking out policies would pay 60 per cent of the fee; the state where the property is situated and the Federal government would each pay 20 per cent. Coverage would be available to individuals, business and state and local governments. Private insurance companies would be reimbursed against losses on flood damage policies.

The Red Cross has declared that 1955 was the worst disaster year in American history largely because of the recurring and devastating floods throughout the country.

Because of the vast extent of flood damage the past year, it is felt that the Federal government will include flood damage among its many insurance plans.

Until effective flood control is put in operation, there should be some form of protection for taxpayers in the several areas exposed to flood damage throughout the county.

The March of Dimes campaign is one way in which all of us can pay part of our dues in the fraternity of mankind.

FLOWER OF BOYHOOD

Next month the Boy Scouts of America celebrate their 46th birthday anniversary by launching a new four-year program to be called, "Onward for God and My Country."

The goal of the program is to give America's youth wider opportunity to develop physical fitness, self-reliance, a sense of religious obligation, a feeling of personal responsibility, greater willingness to share and to help others, and an understanding of the nation's democratic processes.

In a day when the path of our youth seems strewn with greater hazards than ever and the performance of American youngsters is under heavy challenge, the Boy Scouts loom large as a tremendous force for sound guidance and development. No movement in America merits more encouragement.

Let Americans everywhere join in making the Boy Scouts' new program the success it deserves to be.

PAMPERING BREEDS WEAKNESS

The Sherman County Journal, of Moro, Oregon, stated a very big principle in a very small space when it said: "A government that protects the weak will always have lots of that kind of people; a government that lets the strong develop will have that kind."

It is a law of nature that pampering breeds weakness. The pen-raised bird, loosed in the wilds, has small chance of survival, as many state game agencies have learned from extensive experience. The parallel extends to the human individual. And the result is about the same whether

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

FUSSING AND FUMING

It would seem to me that by now any intelligent man would know that the United States has had and is having lots of trouble over China. This trouble has been fairly continuous, in one form or another, since the Taiping Rebellion (1850-1864). It reached a crescendo of ugliness during the Boxer Rebellion (1900). It subsided and the United States became very popular during the Sun Yat-sen Revolution (1911); then it got very bad again during the Student Movement (1919) as a protest against Woodrow Wilson's compromises with the Japanese during the Paris Peace Conference. Then our troubles subsided for a while and the Nationalist Government came into existence. It was antagonistic to Japan and therefore at that time friendly to the United States. Then the Chinese Communist Party seized the mainland of China (1949) and we had a permanent enemy. All that was left to us of friendship among the Chinese was on Formosa, also called Taiwan.

All the fussing and fuming about our being on the brink of war with Red China is political poppycock. We are always on the brink of war with Red China. That is now a permanent relationship. Surely we have not already forgotten that the Korean War was a war between the United States and Red China and that the United States did not win that war. We permitted ourselves an out: it was a United Nations police action and the Chinese we fought there were volunteers. If you are taken in by that kind of verbal gibberish, you live in an intellectual happyland and it does not much matter what the facts of a situation are anyhow.

The Democrats know all the facts about the troubles in China. Many of the recent ones have been of their making. Nobody comes out too well in the China story because the history of it goes back to the early 1920's when the Communists were organizing there and our government people were too dumb and starry-eyed to understand that a Marxist, whether Russian or Chinese, must hate the United States which had to play the historic role of the principal enemy of Marxism when the lines were drawn. For myself, I can say that I saw the picture as it had to develop and wrote about it as early, in China, as 1920. For it, I was attacked and smeared as pro-Japanese, which at that time was the sneer word. There were others who saw the developing picture, but not among the top men in our government. It can be said that from the Washington Conference (1921-1922) to the present day, the China policy of the United States has been wobbly, uncertain, unfocused and that because of this condition we have fought a major war with Japan and a minor war with Red China.

So when the politicians get fussing and fuming about anybody, John Foster Dulles, a "Life" reporter or a ghost-writer using the phrase "brink of war" with Red China, they are just stirring up the wind in the hope that out of it will come some political advantage. To one who is situated as I am at present, this is silly stuff. The time ought to be long passed when we lay banana peels about the streets of Washington in the hope that our statesmen will slip. We have been slipping too badly without any aid and one would imagine that Election year or no, maturity would dictate a serious approach to serious problems. The United States cannot afford to come to terms with Red China on Red China's terms without losing the last scintilla of "face" and prestige in Asia. We might as well accept the isolationism that the Soviet Universal State offers us as the best result of a policy that started with Franklin D. Roosevelt and, in philosophy, has changed little since.

There is no advantage in denouncing this policy except as an objective historian might. From the standpoint of practical government, this is what we have and the results as they are in 1956 are what we have to deal with. We cannot alter anything that happened between 1946 and 1956; these are facts accomplished. They are the facts of our historic life. Short of war, we cannot change a single one of them. But we must go on and we must go on with patriotism and a sense of national dignity. If we cannot form ranks on a program of patriotism and national dignity, we have nothing really to say.

That Body of Yours

By JAMES W. BARTON, M.D.

ROTARY BRUSH METHOD FOR ACNE SCARS

Yesterday we were discussing the treatment of acne scars by demabrasion (rubbing or scraping of the skin) and the type of case in which it has been found most helpful. We must stress again that it is important to discuss the problem thoroughly with the patient in the presence of a relative and to stress, when necessary, that the results may fall somewhat short of the patient's expectation. Although the treatment does not produce "miraculous new skin," surface flat scars sometimes respond with striking results; other types are benefited in various degrees. The procedure may also be used for the treatment of scars from herpes zoster (shingles), chickenpox, or smallpox. Scars from chickenpox, because of their flattened surface, respond exceptionally well.

The sandpaper treatment, has had the most publicity in recent years but the new rotary brush method, while employing the same basic principles as the sandpaper treatment, has additional innovations that improve immeasurably both the technique and the results. It employs a refrigeration-type anesthetic that both facilitates abrasion and controls bleeding. The operation can be performed in the office since general anesthesia is not required.

The abrading device consists of a motor mounted on a stand to which a flexible shaft is attached. At the end of the shaft is a handpiece with provisions for inserting and tightening the wire brush. The speed of rotation of the brush is controlled by a foot-operated control. The operation should begin with the application of chilled packs on a clean skin (freshly shaved, cosmetics removed) for about 20 minutes. The scalp is covered with a cap to prevent any hairs from becoming entangled in the brush. Cotton is plugged in ear canals and into the nostril on the side to be planned. Lips are greased with petroleum, eyelids covered. The area to be planned is then "frozen" by a special blower, and the skin turns white, becomes anesthetized and rigid. The scars are then abraded by the motor-driven wire brush, which is manipulated in short strokes with a firm hand in a direction vertical to the rotating direction of the brush in order to avoid grooving. The procedure is repeated, progressing from area to area.

Such matters as how much pressure to apply, the width of the brush, the angle of the blades and the number of "abrasions" are determined entirely by experience. Blood-oozing from the frozen sites is minimal and dries quickly. Most patients find the procedure to be painless; others complain of a slight burning sensation.

When the bandages are removed, usually after about 24 hours, the sight may be frightening to some as the skin is red and markedly swollen and covered with dried blood scabs. The scabs drop off in seven to ten days and after the second week most patients return to their normal activities. The edges of the scars begin to recede by the fourth week and the improvement continues steadily for several months so that patients usually look their best about six months after the treatment.

"It's a Road---It Just Hasn't Been Used Much"

Edson's Washington News Notebook

By PETER EDSON

NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington (NEA)—The only chance for a federal tax cut this year is to carry out the recommendations of ex-President Herbert Hoover's second commission on government reorganization.

That is the conclusion of the Council of 30 State Chambers of Commerce. It is one of the stronger pressure groups constantly agitating for greater government economy.

Noting that the Eisenhower administration cut spending by ten billion dollars in its first two years, Eugene F. Rinta, the Council's research director, now points out that federal spending under the new budget will now go up two billion dollars. Half of this increase will go for more national defense.

This puts the finger squarely on what Dept. of Defense is doing to carry out Hoover recommendations.

Charles A. Coolidge, Boston lawyer, is just winding up his assignment as special assistant to Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson in charge of Hoover reports. The job is being turned over to Mr. Coolidge's deputy, Floyd S. Bryant of San Francisco, a Standard of California vice president.

ONE OF THE AMAZING things about the 19 Hoover reports is that nearly every one of their 314 recommendations apply to some Dept. of Defense activity.

The job which Coolidge and Bryant have had is to get the hundreds of Defense bureaus and offices to file their views on the recommendations and get them coordinated.

Until a few weeks ago, Bureau of the Budget denied Defense the right to express its views on the Hoover recommendations, until they were coordinated with the views of other agencies. This bottleneck has now been removed.

The score card shows this action so far by Defense:

Hoover recommendations fully concurred in, 133.

Concurred in with minor qualifications, 105.

Not concurred in, or major qualifications, 40.

Defense has not yet completed its review on three of the Hoover reports covering food and clothing procurement, business organization in Defense and special personnel problems.

These cover 56 more recommendations, with some duplication in overlapping fields.

APPROVAL IS EXPECTED on the food and clothing procurement report. This will establish central procurement for Army, Navy and Air Force, establish a uniform ration for all three services and the drawing of supplies based on number of men in service instead of on table or organization authorized strength.

Major dissent by Defense are to be filed against Hoover recommendations for abolition of post exchanges and commissary stores, reduction of shipping services and centralization of all legal services, including judge advocates' administration of military justice.

No score card has been compiled on the number of Hoover recommendations actually carried out by administrative order within Defense.

And there is no estimate on what savings in dollars, if any, have been made in next year's 42.5 billion dollar military budget by carrying out Hoover recommendations.

ON THE MATTER of eliminating commercial-type activities of the armed services, competing with private business, this is the latest count:

Over 800 out of an estimated 2,000 of these enterprises have been reviewed. Of these, 179 have been discontinued, and 189 have been approved by Secretary Wilson for continued operation.

House Appropriation Committee has approved discontinuance of 52 out of 56 others. The four ordered continued are Boston Navy Yard rope walk and chain factory, Mare Island, Calif. and Norfolk, Va., paint factories.

Thirty-two more establishments are scheduled for discontinuance if approved by Congress and 382 more are being surveyed.

This rate of progress is not being taken as any indication that economies will justify tax cuts any time soon.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Lyle Wilson, the chief of the Washington Bureau of the United Press, is boasting about a dog which he obtained—repeat, obtained—for the children of his daughter, Sally Crawford, who was a literary child prodigy at the age of nine when she wrote a one-act drama entitled "Grandmother Has Gone to the Bar—Huc." This "Huc" was widely condemned in a circle in Washington in which I had non-resident membership. Purists held out for the conventional "hic." But Miss Sally Wilson insisted that the great men of statecraft and journalism who coursed through the Wilsons' gracious home during the New Deal more often pronounced it "huc."

Felix Frankfurter, ever the hair-splitter when in dissent or dissent, filed a separate opinion. He said "hup!" was nearer to reality, but he is Viennese and may think in viennese terms in such matters.

The dog which Mr. Wilson obtained for Sally's babies represents the moral nadir of the dreadful era which began when Roosevelt "recognized" Soviet Russia and struck hands with godlessness in 1933. Because in describing this blameworthy Mr. Wilson, himself a victim of his environment these fateful years, writes proudly—"he goes when called."

He further states that this dog is either the smallest Mastiff or the largest Griffon ever bred. He also says he incurred it by a chance acquaintance with a man who said it was following him. The man offered him $5 to lure it away. Times are tough everywhere, so Mr. Wilson took the $5 and yelled "get out of here, you revolting mutt." So this dog followed him to Sally's home and endeared himself to

President's Own Decision Seen Against Renomination

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, Jan. 27—President Eisenhower has eliminated himself as a candidate desiring renomination. He will not seek re-election if the decision is left to him. As he personally sees it at present, he should not be a candidate.

These inferences are readily desired from a careful reading of the transcript of the press conference held by the President this week.

Still unanswered is the question of what the President would do if the Republican party at its national convention in August drafts him and, in effect, says to the American people that, since nobody can guess the future health of any President, a capable vice presidential nominee is being offered for their consideration on the same ticket.

Mr. Eisenhower also says that he would not favor asking Chief Justice Warren to leave the Supreme Court to become a candidate. He has repeatedly praised Vice President Nixon. This is being taken to mean that he would favor the retention of Mr. Nixon on the ticket as vice president or his nomination for the presidency.

MR. EISENHOWER says he cannot "guess" what might be his health "in the next five years." He says that his own decision will be made not on what the effect would be on himself but "the effect on the presidency in the next five years."

He describes who a President may feel like he did last week—"very zestful" on that particular day—and yet on another day might not feel that way, though a man in the presidency, as he pointed out, requires a lot of "zip and zest" to carry on its important duties, especially in conferences on national and international affairs.

This can be read as an indication that, if left to Mr. Eisenhower himself, the question would be answered in only one way—he himself would not wish to take the responsibility for saying that he would be physically fit "during the next five years." This refers, of course to the remaining year of his present term and four years of a new term.

IT MIGHT BE argued that, if Mr. Eisenhower were re-elected and then something happened to impair his health, he could always resign in favor of the vice president. There is a simple procedure for this under existing law. The President simply writes a letter to the secretary of state notifying him that he is resigning on a certain date at a certain hour, and the secretary of state then notifies the vice-president to be at hand at that time to take the oath of office as President.

But would it be fair to the American people to elect anybody President who might have to resign at any time during his term? The answer probably will be made that the vice president on the same ticket would be nominated by the party with full knowledge of what could arise with respect to the health of the President. The vice president, therefore, would stand before the electorate on his own merits, and the nation would be on notice ahead of time of the contingency that might arise.

Mr. Eisenhower is utterly frank and honest in his discussion of the whole problem, and it is because there is no simple solution that it is more logical now to believe that if the decision were left to him, he would prefer to give up the idea of being a candidate at all rather than to subject the presidency to the various contingencies mentioned by him.

EVIDENTLY, Mr. Eisenhower thinks highly of Vice President Nixon. And if the President feels comfortable about possible succession in the next twelve months, it will be hard to follow his reasoning if he announces that only after a given date—namely, Jan. 20, 1957—he would not wish to take a chance on the effect of his illness on the Presidency itself.

For it will now be asked whether Mr. Eisenhower isn't at this moment taking a chance on his inability to give the office the energy he seems to feel it may deserve on days when his heart condition makes him let up on his work?

If logic is applied, the President is really raising a question as to whether he should try to serve out his present term. Twelve months is a long, long time and the tensions about which he speaks can arise in those twelve months, too. Important decisions might have to be taken instantly, especially on the use of the atomic bomb to ward off attacks. Only the President is authorized to make that kind of decision. Mr. Eisenhower's forthcoming statement will have to clear up many things besides his possible candidacy for a second term. (Reproduction Rights Reserved)

It was for a few generations a noble, affectionate and altogether admirable breed of dogs which came into existence by reason of the happy miracle of that hole in the screen of the porch up there back of Stamford, Conn., that day so long before.

This most vivacious puppy of Annie Rooney's first litter, called Sarah, was presented to Sally Wilson when Sally was about two years old. Sarah was about three months. Sarah went to Washington in a shoebox and lived to eat the entire back out of a new overcoat which Bill Hassett, a fallen-away Vermont Republican, had draped over the Wilsons' couch one night in Roosevelt's time. Connie apologized horribly to Mr. Hassett, a very thrifty fellow, but secretly cuddled Sarah when Bill had gone.

Sarah lived a full life. In youth, if Sarah nipped Sally, Sally bit her back. When Sarah hopped up and lapped Sally's dinner, Sally hopped down and ate Sarah's.

Sarah's progeny were almost Rooseveltian in number, variety and obstreperousness. At last she died of some gastric trouble traced to chile powder from the garbage cans of Latin-American embassies across Massachusetts avenue from the Wilson place.

'Good Old Days' Are Buried

Postwar Inflation Now Part of U. S. Economy

New York, Jan. 27 (P)—They seem to be about ready to bury "the good old days." Talk about the postwar deflation that must inevitably come and cut the cost of living is at a minimum now.

Even the Russians' new try at making the American people think they are being brought to the brink of peace doesn't stir up much hope for a change in the governmental pattern.

Big debt, big spending, high taxes.

THE TALK NOW is all of recognizing the postwar inflation as an accepted fact of life—solidly built into the economy.

High prices, they say now, are here to stay. Success now is measured not by a cut in the cost of living but by the stability with which it can be maintained at its present level.

Few indeed see much chance of going back to the old purchasing power of the dollar. Holding the line is praise worthy in itself.

AS PRESIDENT Eisenhower put it in his economic report to Congress: "The events of the past three years have been heartening. We have seen that our economy can continue to grow with a minimum of instability of employment and without any appreciable change in the value of money."

But before shedding too many tears over the demise of "the good old days," stop to think if you'd really like to go back.

The cost of living has gone up, sure. But in many industries the scale of wages and salaries has gone up even more since prewar days. As a result, in many factories a worker can turn the proceeds of an hour's work into more food and clothing than he could have in the thirties when food and clothing were cheaper.

AND MANY THINGS actually cost less today than they did when grandfather was a boy. Some of these stems from America's genius for mass production. Aluminum is an example. Fifty years ago it cost 35 cents a pound. Now, in spite of price rises since World War 2, it costs 22½ cents a pound.

Miracle drugs are examples, too. When they come out their price seems all but prohibitive. In a few years they are brought down in the reach of everyone.

Grandfather thought of fresh vegetables and fruits in winter-time as served only on the tables of the rich. An orange was a luxury to be stuffed in the Christmas stocking as a special treat.

Look in your refrigerator. Count the items of prepackaged, even precooked foods. Look in your freezer and count even more—not to mention the economies that a smart shopper can make in filling it.

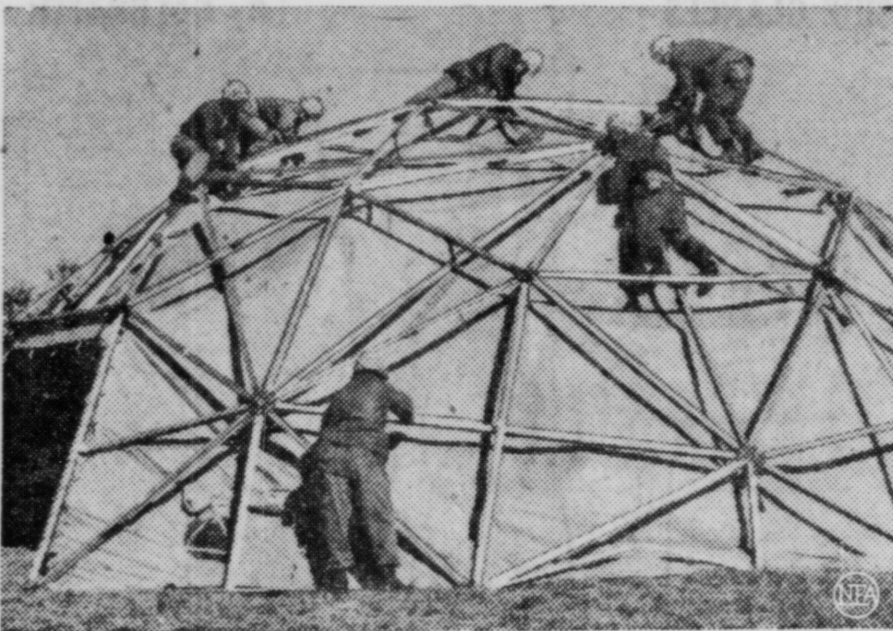

The costs of transportation have risen in recent years. But how about the number of working days that had to be foregone during a trip from New York to Los Angeles 50 years ago?

And now they tell us that when the jet age has arrived and the time is cut to just long enough for a good nap, the costs of operation may be pared enough also that fares might even be sliced.

BUT FOR MOST things the price tag is way up compared with the good old days—and it's most unlikely the price will fall much.

Builders say that before World War 2 they could build a house for $8,000 that in 1950 would cost about $18,000, and today the same size house would cost more than $20,000.

Home prices may fluctuate. But who talks now of any future time when today's $20,000 house may be built for $8,000 again?

IT'LL GO PLACES—This collapsible enclosure developed by the Marine Corps can be transported by helicopter to the front for use as an aid station. Marines are shown setting it up at Quantico, Va., during recent amphibious maneuvers. The dome can also be used as a command post or as an enclosure in which to store vital supplies and equipment. ## BABSON on BUSINESS

Babson Park, Mass., Jan. 27—Most people seem content to live from day to day irrespective of their pocketbooks. Governmental "womb-to-tomb" social security has caused people to take lightly problems of unemployment and old-age security. Most young people give little or no sound thought to their financial futures. They, therefore, never get even the few dollars necessary to get themselves started on the road to successful investment. Surely, the birds who build their nests (homes) before they raise their young set up a good example.

MY FATHER used to tell me that a man who systematically spends less than he gets, automatically becomes an employer; while a man who spends all he earns, automatically remains a wage earner. Father insisted that the business of saving had nothing to do with how much money a person had, or the amount of his salary. "Some people with very large incomes never save anything," he used to say.

It has been my own observation that partners in business and partners in marriage tend to get along well as long as there is plenty of cash in the bank. It is when the bills come in, and there is no money with which to pay them, that trouble begins. The only way to assure financial or marriage success is to tell your dollar where to go instead of asking where it went.

YOUR FIRST step in an investment program is to save some of your income each week. The next step is to make your savings produce some more income. I am a firm believer, however, that it is cheaper to pay the grocer than the doctor; hence a budget should be drawn up which puts first things really first. Many of my clients tell me that they are handicapped by spending too much on rent, or its equivalent in taxes, repairs, insurance, etc., on property owned. The best thing that could happen in many households today would be to cut down household labor costs by getting the children to help more with household chores.

TO START A BUDGET, one ought to determine from experience and from old bank statements and cancelled checks what his probable expenses will be for the year ahead. My observations through the years are that a man with a family of four who has a net income of $4,000 (after income and social security taxes) ought to hold his living expenses to about 75% of the $4,000. About 42% of this would go for food and clothing; 33% for housing and transportation. Right here I think many families, especially in the lower-income brackets, will find that they are paying altogether too much for their transportation in the form of a new automobile which they cannot afford. If they want to get started on a sound investment program, they better pay more cash and use less credit. Six percent is budgeted for benevolence and the church; 6% for personal and miscellaneous items. This leaves about 13%, or $545, for insurance, savings accounts and investments. Let us hope that $220 dollars of this will go for life insurance premiums. This would leave $325 a year to save and invest otherwise.

A STUDY of the average man's financial independence is generally shocking to most people. About 30% of the men 55 years of age are not self-supporting. The real tragedy of this situation, as I have seen it, is that the average man made enough money between the ages of thirty and fifty to keep himself and his family in comparative ease for the rest of his life. He just never got around to a definite plan of saving and investing. Does it not seem senseless for you to work hard the best part of your life to get a few dollars if those dollars earn nothing for you after you get them? It is highly important to learn early in life how to budget, save, and invest.

IMPORTANT CAPITAL is created only by labor and saving; those who consume less than they produce turn their surplus back into productive channels to increase the nation's store. Investments, plus bank deposits, are the way in which capital is increased. Increased capital means increased production. Greater production means more wealth. More wealth means more to be distributed among those who take part in production. Greater production means more consumable goods and services at lower prices for all of us. This is the democratic way of raising our standard of living.

Adult Education At Kerhonkson to Begin on Jan. 30

It was announced today through the office of Roland A. Riegel, supervising principal of the Kerhonkson Union Free School that the spring semester of the Kerhonkson adult program will re-organize and start Monday, Jan. 30 at 7:30 p. m. in the main high school building. Mr. Riegel, director of the adult program, indicated that the adult advisory committee has met for the purpose of selecting courses to be offered and that the courses are as follows:

1. Beginning and intermediate sewing, instructor, Mrs. Jessie Barnhart, room 4.
2. Public speaking, instructor, Philip Korn, room 7.
3. Mixed chorus, instructor, Angelo Di Vita, room 5. It is hoped that a great interest will be shown in the above chorus so that an area music organization of adults may eventually develop.
4. Ceramics, instructors, Mrs. Elizabeth Spadaro and Mrs. Helen Spadaro. This course will meet half of the time in room 9 and the other half of the time in the homes of the Spadaros. This course started January 16. The January 30 course will meet in the main high school.

All the courses will meet on Monday evenings starting January 30 with the exception, as already noted, concerning ceramics. Courses will continue for a nine week period ending Monday, March 26. Individual groups, however, may elect a night other than Monday and continue the courses longer or shorter than 10 weeks if it is agreeable by all concerned. At least 12 people must enroll in a course and an average attendance of at least eight people must be maintained in order to ensure that a course will continue.

The fact that four courses are being offered does not mean that these are the only ones that can be held. If individuals desire additional courses and if a total of 12 people can be found that are interested in it, such a course may be set up. Adults falling into this classification should contact the Kerhonkson High School office for additional information or a member of the Adult Education Advisory Committee which consists of the following: Mrs. Frances Sherman, Frank Kelder, Mrs. Siegfried Abrahams, Mrs. Wilfred Kopp, Mrs. David Pomantz, Mrs. Frances McCauley, Mrs. Mort Bogartz and Mrs. William Amann.

Harriman Blames GOP About Israel

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 27 (AP)—Gov. Harriman says the Eisenhower administration has failed to "take the lead in convincing Israel's neighbors that the nation is here to stay."

The Democratic governor argued yesterday that the Republican national administration had contributed to the present dangerous situation in the Middle East through "indecision, delay and failure . . . to take responsibility."

"We must act vigorously to end the present state of insecurity and uncertainty which have led to violence, retaliation and counter-retaliation," he declared.

Harriman's views were expressed in a telegram to President Irving M. Engel of the American Jewish Committee, which is holding its 49th annual meeting in New York city. He maintained the administration should have made it clear "that the United States meant precisely what it said in the tri-partite declaration of 1950 regarding frontiers and armistice lines separating Israel from the Arab States."

MAKING A BIG MOVE—The old village smithy at Shelbourne, Vt., said to be 150 years old—has come to rest at the Shelbourne Museum. It was moved 2700 feet to the museum grounds, where it will be preserved. Museum officials plan to fully equip it. They even plan to hire an old-time blacksmith to show visitors how horseshoes were made and wrought iron was forged long ago. The brick blacksmith shop is shown above as it was moved onto the museum grounds. Only last winter, the same museum brought the famous old sidewheeler, Ticonderoga, two miles overland and made it a permanent exhibit.

THE RUMINATOR

By HUMPHREY B. NEILL

A Column of Contrary Opinion

It is most unfortunate, with all the predictions which are issued concerning the future course of business and markets, that it remains virtually impossible to forecast the extent or duration of an expected change in trends.

The Ruminator would not make such an assertion if it had not been his vocation for almost 30 years to study, observe, and evaluate economic forecasts.

Please do not misunderstand me. There have been accurate predictions by economists and economic organizations, of course. But I think it is fair to say that the great majority of general predictions over the years have failed in some important respect. Two important errors in forecasting may be mentioned:

a. The predictions have missed out in their timing of the expected change in trend.

b. When a change in trend has been expected and forecast the magnitude of the new trend, either in extent or duration, has commonly been underestimated.

This common error of underestimating occurs in relation to both rises and falls. That is, when a shift from a recession to a recovery is anticipated, the recovery is likely to be more extensive than expected. Last year serves as an example. The optimistic forecasts that were issued in late 1954 and early 1955 underestimated the extent of the boom. Contrariwise, slump predictions commonly fall short of what develops.

Likewise, predictions frequently go wrong in that NO marked shift in trends occurs, although a rise or a fall had been generally forecast.

There are many reasons why predictions go wrong. One is that a general forecast becomes so commonly believed that businessmen and consumers act ahead of the predicted "event" and in consequence it is deflected. If you thought a slump would occur in a matter of six months or so you would pull in your oars ahead of time, and plan for it. If the majority of people did the same, the predicted event would be forestalled, probably.

So you might say that universal predictions, when generally believed, are likely to make the predictions go wrong.

SECONDLY, it is a habit to plan on things running along about as they are, without expecting great change. Thus, if a set-back in business or markets is thought to be probable, the recession is commonly expected to be mild. That is the common expectancy at the present moment. Seldom, when a downward change is anticipated, will you find people looking for serious trouble.

Let us use the present for further illustration.

There has been a gradual shift in opinions about 1956. In general, the predictions one ran across in December, for instance, were optimistic in the extreme. The year 1956 was to be as prosperous and boomish as 1955; indeed, many forecasts saw 1956 as a bigger year than 1955.

Gradually, as mentioned, these rosy forecasts lost a bit of their bloom, but little worse than some "slacking off" later in the year has been noticeable in current forecasts. Such slacking-off has been commonly referred to as a "pause in the boom."

That brings us to the contrary analysis. Inasmuch as slumps in the past have not been commonly expected in advance to gain serious momentum on the downside, the extent of the drops have come as something of a shock to people generally.

BACK IN 1936, and during the first half of 1937, for example, it was not generally thought possible that a severe slump and brief depression could occur. Yet, the drop was sharp and severe. The fall in the stock market in the autumn of '37 was one of the most precipitous on record.

Similarly with other slumps in our economic history. The extent of the 1920-21 set-back was not expected. Yet, commodity prices literally crashed, in a period of a few months.

Thus, the Ruminator thinks we have to bear in mind that when "pauses" are predicted it is prudent to remember a pause may become a bust when least expected.

WE Now Longest Major Walkout In Recent History

Pittsburgh, Jan. 27 (AP)—The Westinghouse Electric Corp. strike became the nation's longest major walkout in recent labor history today amid reports of some progress in negotiations to end the 103-day-old dispute.

The reports yesterday, made by the company and Secretary of Labor Mitchell, were the first public statements in recent weeks that offered encouragement of a settlement.

NEITHER, however, gave any indication of just how far along the road toward agreement the company had come with the striking AFL-CIO International Union of Electrical Workers.

Mitchell said in Washington that the federal mediation and conciliation service had reported "considerable progress" in negotiations held over the past 10 days.

And Westinghouse asserted that the contract talks were "proceeding more productively." Of yesterday's session, however, IUE President James B. Carey said "I couldn't see any progress." Carey has been heading the union negotiations. Top level talks continued today.

THE IUE called out its 44,000 members in 30 Westinghouse plants last Oct. 17 to back up demands for a 15-cent-hourly wage increase under a one year pact. Westinghouse offered a five-year pact providing for total increases of 23½ cents an hour in that period. Workers averaged $2.10 an hour before the strike.

The longest previous strike in recent labor history was the 102-day walkout against Chrysler Corp. in 1950 by 95,000 employees. Some strikes in early union organizing days ranged longer. Part of the soft coal industry was idled for nine months in 1927.

Kefauver May Test Adlai in Minnesota

Madison, Wis., Jan. 27 (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) indicated last night he will enter the Minnesota presidential primary March 20 in what would be a test of strength with Adlai Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic nominee, who is entered in the race.

"If you want to speculate for the sake of speculation I probably will run," he said after speaking to an overflow crowd of 700 at a Democratic rally here, that closed his three-day Wisconsin primary campaign tour.

At an earlier press conference Kefauver declined to announce a decision on the Minnesota race. But in referring to Wisconsin's April 3 primary, which will name delegates to the national party conventions, he said he would capture the 28-man Wisconsin delegation regardless of anything Stevenson did. Stevenson has not entered the Wisconsin race and Kefauver, who carried the state's Democratic delegation in 1952, remained the only candidate from either party.

Finnish Cabinet Quits

Helsinki, Finland, Jan. 27 (AP)—Finnish Premier Urho Kekkonen's coalition cabinet turned in its resignation today. But President Juho Paasikivi said he wanted to consider the matter before deciding. Observers expected the President to ask Kekkonen to remain in office until Finland's presidential elections are over and the cabinet resigns automatically. Shortly after resigning, the premier flew to Copenhagen to represent Finland at the current session of the five-nation Nordic Council.

Perhaps today's contract is slightly overbid, but it isn't at all unreasonable. South should make his game contract against normal breaks.

East wins the first trick with the ace of hearts and returns a trump. How should South proceed?

If South can ruff twice in the dummy, he is pretty sure to make 10 tricks. The trouble with such a plan, however, is that South must let the opponents take a club trick before he can ruff a club in dummy. The defenders will then lead a second trump, leaving only one trump in the dummy. Since South cannot manage to ruff twice in dummy with only one trump he must give up this attractive plan.

Because short suits will not work, South must rely on a long suit. The idea is to establish dummy's long diamonds.

At the second trick South can win the trump return in either hand, but he must return a diamond and play low from both hands. If trumps are returned, South wins in his own hand, leads a diamond to the ace, and ruffs a third round of diamonds with a high trump.

This establishes dummy's long suit, and South gets to dummy with a third round of trumps to the jack. This draws all of the outstanding trumps and puts declarer in dummy at the same time. Now he can cash the high diamonds, obtaining all of the tricks he needs for his game contract.

Quemoy, Once Doomed Isle, Now Vital Nationalist Post

By JAMES CARY

Quemoy Island, Jan. 27 (AP)—This Nationalist Chinese outpost has been called the island of the doomed. But its defenders don't feel that way. They are growing stronger day by day.

Defiant in the face of renewed tension in the Formosa Strait, the bristling little fortress is an armored thorn in the hide of Red China. It lies only six miles from the mainland, across the mouth of Amoy harbor.

THE 50-SQUARE-mile island is ringed with 400 Communist gun positions and an estimated 120,000 Communist troops. It has been pounded by more than 33,000 shells since the vest-pocket war began Sept. 3, 1954. Eighty-one of its defenders and two American observers have been killed, 113 other persons wounded.

Yet from one end of the spool-shaped island to the other a correspondent can find no despair, only tough, guarded optimism. The defenders are crack troops of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek. They are fighting a hot war. Wounded are hauled out after almost every shelling. The island is on a war footing.

You can feel the tension as you fly in from Formosa. The last third of the trip is "on the deck"—about 200 feet above the water to avoid Communist radar. You roar in over the landing strip and let down fast. A miss would mean overshooting and coming within range of Red guns.

QUEMOY HAS four main satellites—Little Quemoy, 1½ miles to the west and the three Tan islets, a little farther south and west. Together they completely block Amoy harbor.

The Communists tried vainly in 1949 to capture the islands, losing their entire 16,000-man assault force.

The Nationalists feel they would be equally successful in repelling another assault and are making every possible preparation to meet one. They say it can come any time.

DOMES OF underground forts jut from almost every hill. Pillboxes dot the lower levels. Bunkers line the ridges. Trenches cut across from position to position in zig-zag patterns. Concrete shelters and sandbagged installations are everywhere.

If you look carefully, you can see camouflaged tanks and other vehicles dug in in the distance. Interlocking fields of fire ring the island from staggered gun positions. Young, tough-looking troops swing by.

ON THE LOWLANDS, the farmers continue to work their fields. They also have a major role to play in the defense plan. The 44,000 civilians on the islands have been trained and organized into a home guard. They soon will have arms, said Maj. Gen. Yih Tien Chan, a spokesman for the garrison commander, Lt. Gen. Liu Yu Cha.

LIU IS A name to worry the Reds. His outnumbered forces held seven Communist armies at bay for more than three months in the 1949 battle for Shanghai. He has been called the general who never loses a battle.

Speaking for Liu, Yin said Nationalist strength on Quemoy is growing steadily with the continuing influx of heavy equipment and training by American advisers.

600 Enjoy Polio Show at Onteora, Airmen Are Stars

Approximately 600 persons were at Onteora Central School Auditorium Thursday night to enjoy the Review in Blue from Sampson Air Force Base presented to raise money for the March of Dimes in the towns of Olive and Shandaken.

Last night's appearance was the finale in this area for the airmen, who played at Kingston High School Monday night for the local polio fund as a feature of the variety show, which also presented local amateur talent.

Wednesday, the 14 airmen appeared at Reade's Community Theatre for the opening of the movie "The Lieutenant Wore Skirts."

Early this morning the servicemen left Stewart Air Force Base, Newburgh, for Sampson carrying messages of gratitude to Maj. Gen. Wycliffe Steele for sanctioning their trip to this sector in behalf of the fight on polio.

The letters also praised the conduct of "this fine group of air force gentlemen" while they were in Kingston.

Last night's show at Onteora School was arranged through the cooperation of Frank Oulton, director of the Kingston variety show, who was highly impressed by the Review in Blue which helped his project raise $2,000 for the March of Dimes.

Featured with the airmen on last night's program was the Onteora Central School Band under the direction of Harry Simon.

The audience was generous with applause demonstrating that the event was a success.

After the show, the air force boys were hosts of Kingston Lodge 550, BPO Elks. Exalted Ruler Charles Higgins assured them that their efforts in behalf of the worthy cause were very much appreciated by Ulster county people.

Roundup of Albany Bills

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 27 (AP)—A legislative committee said today it was proposing a complete overhaul of the state's rules of the road, as a means of making driving safer.

Sen. Searles G. Schultz, Skaneateles Republican who heads the joint committee on traffic violations, said the bill would be submitted Monday night.

THE MEASURE retains some of the features in the state's 26-year-old vehicle and traffic law regarded as better than the uniform vehicle code, he said. It is to be sponsored by the vice chairman of the commission, Republican Assemblyman Charles A. Cusick of Cayuga county, and Sen. Harry K. Morton, Hornell Republican.

"Enactment of this legislation will make for uniformity throughout the state in regard to traffic rules," Schultz said.

Motorists acquainted with the proposed rules, the chairman said, could drive "from Montauk (on the tip of Long Island) to Buffalo without fear of violating a local traffic law as long as he obeyed the rules and observed the traffic signs as he went along."

A SYSTEM of permanent personal registration for voters at union free school district elections was proposed by two Nassau county Republicans. Sen. William S. Hulst and Assemblywoman Genesta Strong submitted bills that would allow the board of education or a majority of voters to approve PPR for district elections.

Under present law, school voters must register each year. Last year Nassau and Broome counties adopted PPR for general elections. Other counties are expected to take it up.

HULTS and Mrs. Strong said some school voters thought their PPR cards could be used for school elections. The same system for school elections, they said, would "avoid needless confusion."

Assemblyman Malcolm Wilson yesterday proposed placing a three-year limit on the Tax Commission's right to collect state personal income tax installments.

The Yonkers Republican said it was now up to the taxpayer to prove he had paid. Wilson called this an "undue hardship since he must search several years into the past for canceled checks or other records establishing his proof."

WILSON said his measure would not limit the state's prosecution of any income tax evaders or those who do not pay.

Three years, Wilson said, was a "reasonable time" for the tax commission to establish any claim. Harriman administration bills already have been introduced to lengthen from two to six years the statute of limitations for prosecution of state income tax evaders, Democratic lawmakers sponsoring the bills said tax sleuths had found it impossible in two years to check for fraud all the returns pouring in.

Refresher Class For Equivalency Test Is Planned

A refresher class for the Equivalency tests will be organized next Monday, Jan. 30, at 7 p. m., in Room 57 in Kingston High School. Victor Mahoney will be the instructor.

The New York State High School Equivalency Testing Program offers adult residents of this state, who for some reason have not completed their high school education in the regular manner, an opportunity to demonstrate their educational growth.

AN ADULT who attains satisfactory scores on the High School Level Tests of General Educational Development (GED Tests) is eligible to receive a New York State High School Equivalency Diploma. This diploma is the legal equivalent of a diploma issued by a local high school and as such is of value to an adult who wishes to qualify for certain types of employment, for promotion in industry, or for admission to advanced educational training. In effect, the program is designed to remove a barrier from the paths of educationally mature adults who wish to make further educational or economic progress.

The refresher class will meet Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 9 p. m. Anyone interested in enrolling for this class is asked to register with Mr. Hoderath in his office in the Vocational Building at 7 p. m., next Monday, Jan. 30.

Irritation Growing

Vienna, Jan. 27 (AP)—Austrian irritation is growing over a little air war developing over their neutral territory. Repeatedly fighter planes from Communist Czechoslovakia are crossing the Austrian frontier to shoot down balloons carrying anti-Communist propaganda hoisted by the American-sponsored Radio Free Europe (RFE) in Western Germany.

B&P Club Holds Meeting

struck several guard rails on the west side of the highway, continued 200 feet knocking down several guard rail poles. Rickerton then rode up a 150-foot embankment, troopers said, struck and broke a utility pole, rolled down the embankment and was thrown clear of the car.

The car caught fire and was extinguished by a passing motorist, the report said.

Rickerton was removed to Kingston Hospital by Schultz ambulance and later transferred to Albany Hospital.

The accident was reported at 3:35 a. m.

Entry Is Reported

An apparent burglary attempt at the Twaalfskill Club, off West O'Reilly street, was reported to the police Thursday. A rear door and second-story window had been forced, and "entry was believed gained," but the report indicated nothing missing.

LAKE KATRINE SCHOOL PROGRESSES—Work is progressing on the new Lake Katrine School for pupils of Union Free School District No. 4. Occupancy of the seven classrooms is expected around the latter part of March, it was learned today. The $320,000 school will contain seven classrooms, kitchen, administrative offices, combined gymnasium and auditorium and a cafeteria. A 44 per cent increase in the school population during 1955 prompted area school officials to proceed with construction of the new school, which will accommodate 200 students. (Freeman photo)

Financial and Commercial

New York, Jan. 27 (AP)—Another decline took the stock market down slightly today in its second straight fall.

There seldom was any selling pressure, and the market made a few efforts at a rally without much success.

Prices in the early afternoon usually were off between 1 and 2 points at the most. Gains were small.

Response Good To Health Appeal

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—President Eisenhower's appeal to make the government a working partner "in the unending struggle against disease and disability" struck a responsive cord today in Congress.

Democratic chairmen of two House committees which will handle major phases of it promised their support of the five-point program the President sent to Congress yesterday.

Rep. Priest (D-Tenn.), chairman of the commerce committee, predicted that most of Eisenhower's health program would be "acted on favorably this year." He noted that the committee already has considered "much of the legislation proposed and is inclined favorably to it."

Rep. Fogarty (D-R.I.), whose appropriations subcommittee handles funds to finance public health programs, cited the committee's past record of support for medical research work. Fogarty himself was felled several years ago by a heart attack. He has received numerous awards from medical groups for his efforts in behalf of research programs.

On the Senate side, Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.), praised the President's message as "forward-looking and constructive."

Confirms Report

Manila, Jan. 27—Ambassador Homer Ferguson confirmed today that President Eisenhower is considering appointing him to the U. S. Court of Military Appeals. "The appointment is in the hands of President Eisenhower and any comment would have to come from the President," Ferguson said. The appointment to the $25,000-a-year judgeship would be for 15 years.

Keeping Guests Out of Kitchen

A reader asks: "How can I prevent guests (without being rude and offending) from going into my kitchen after dinner and putting left-over food in the refrigerator, scraping best china with my sterling silver, putting things where they don't belong, etc. I am sure they mean to be helpful but I wish they wouldn't do this. I do like to wash and put away the silverware immediately but this can be done so easily without assistance, while the guests go into the living room. This has happened to me on several occasions and it never fails to irritate me. Will you please tell me what I can do about this?"

Can't you put your silver into a dishpan to soak and leave it there until after your guests have gone home? If you yourself stay out of the kitchen they certainly will too.

Who Sits at Bridal Table?

Dear Mrs. Post: I am going to be married shortly. The wedding party will consist of two bridesmaids, two ushers, the maid of honor and best man. There has been some discussion as to who sits at the bridal table in addition to the wedding party. I have been told that the parents of the bride and groom are also seated at the bridal table. Is this correct?

Answer: Usually the bridal table consists only of the members of the bridal party—bride, groom, maid of honor, best man, bridesmaids and ushers. It could, however, be very large and include the parents of both bride and groom.

Present to Son's Fiancee

Dear Mrs. Post: My son is going to be engaged soon and I would like to know what would be an appropriate gift for me to give his fiancee. Must it be something personal?

Answer: The first present to your future daughter-in-law should be something personal. A piece of jewelry would be ideal—if you can afford it.

What should be served for a formal dinner, a buffet lunch or supper? Mrs. Post is sorry she cannot answer personal mail. Her leaflet E-25, "Menus for Every Occasion," will help you. To obtain a copy, send 10 cents in coin to Dept. EP, c/o The Freeman, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y. (Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Finn, German Capture First Gold Medals in Winter Olympics

U. S. Hockey Team Loses, 4-3; Snow Hits Cortina Hakulinen, Reichert Score in Ski Events

Cortina D'Ampezzo, Italy, Jan. 27 (AP)—Finland and Germany each grabbed a first place gold medal today and Italy's two daredevil drivers took a commanding lead at the half-way mark of the two-man bobsled championships as the seventh winter Olympics opened full blast today.

Snow fell, too, to make this a joyous occasion in this snow-starved resort center but there was only gloom in the American camp. The two U. S. bobsled teams were virtually out of their competition. Mrs. Andrea Mead Lawrence finished in a tie for fourth place in the women's giant slalom and the U. S. hockey team absorbed a 4-3 defeat from Czechoslovakia in the last two minutes of its opening game.

Veikko Hakulinen, a 31-year-old Finnish lumberman who won a gold medal at Oslo in 1952, became the first champion of these games when he captured the 30-kilometer cross country ski race (18 miles, 1,128 yards), a new event on the Olympics. Hakulinen was timed in one hour, 44 minutes, six seconds, with a Swede second and a Russian third.

OSSI REICHERT, a 30-year-old German cafeteria manager, unofficially won the giant slalom in the sparkling time of one minute, 56.5 seconds for the lightning fast, 1,700 meter (mile, 109 yards) Tofano course, to dethrone Mrs. Lawrence. The 23-year-old American housewife from Parshall, Colo., winner of both the giant slalom and slalom in 1952, was tied for fourth in 1:58.3.

The result of the Slalom was unofficial pending the usual review by the judges but there wasn't much doubt that the placings would stand.

With the only two finals completed, Russia, making its debut in the winter games with a powerful squad, was tied for first with Germany and Finland with 10 points each in the unofficial team scoring. The Russians compiled their points with third, fourth, fifth and sixth places in the cross country ski race.

Girls Basketball Chernys Top Ramblers; Raiders Defeat Redlegs

Joe Kelly's Ramblers again found the going rough, dropping a 36-14 decision to Cherny Bros. in a Recreation Girls Basketball League game last night at MJM.

In another distaff duel, the Red Raiders overran the Redlegs, 21-14.

The Ramblers, who represents this newspaper, found themselves behind in the opening moments. They just couldn't catch up.

A Rambler spokeswoman declined to comment this morning, other than to say, "We were awful; they were good."

Audrey Cherney and Sis Ortleib formed one-two punch that kayoed the Freeman hoopers. Audrey targeted 16 points and Sis Ortleib 15.

Josephine DeMico scored eight for the Ramblers.

The Raiders held the Redlegs to five points in the last half, after the latter team had led 9-6 at halftime.

Colombian Paces Jamaica Tourney

Kingston, Jamaica, Jan. 27 (AP)—Herman Barron of White Plains, N. Y., and Chick Harbert of Northville, Mich., were right on the heels of the leader, Raoul Posse of Colombia, today as the Jamaica Open golf tournament entered the second round.

Posse, a former champion, carded a 32-32—64 over the par 68 Constant Spring Country Club course yesterday, slipping in one stroke ahead of Barron, who took a one over par on the first hole but finished with 32-33—65.

Harbert was fourth, behind Argentina's Roberto De Vicenzo who had a 66, with a 31-36—67.

Fifteen pros, representing six nations, are entered in the four-day, 72-hole event.

Bezemer Registers 49 Points in Single Game, Setting Individual Record for Florida Player

Lanky Dick Bezemer, former Kingston High School athlete who has been the bellwether of the Rollins basketball squad for two seasons, set a new scoring record for a Florida collegiate player Monday in Lakeland, Fla., when he dropped in 49 points to lead Rollins to a 95-91 win over Florida Southern.

Hitting on hooks, jump shots, outside one-handers and his special back-handed layups with astounding accuracy, Bezemer scored 20 times in 28 shots from the floor and added nine foul shots in 13 tries.

THE 6-5 BEZEMER, only freshman on the all-state team in Florida last season, tied the game in regulation time at 75-75, scored the basket that kept Rollins tied after the first overtime stanza, and scored the winning basket in the second overtime period before fouling out. Forty-three of his points came in regulation time, six in overtime.

The previous Florida scoring record was held by Sid Chadroff of Miami, who scored 47 points against Rollins in 1947.

Bezemer also tied the state record for field goals. Another Rollins player, Frank Barker, set the record at 20 in 1951.

IT WAS the third outstanding performance for Dick in a week. On Jan. 16 he scored 28 points against Tampa. He dropped in 25 markers against the University of Miami Jan. 20.

Bezemer, who averaged 16.7 points as a freshman, playing mostly at forward last season, has averaged 201 points for 13 games this season while holding down the center spot for Rollins. His average might well be higher if he did not have to contend with taller men at center and had not had a two weeks siege with the flu right after Christmas.

Bezemer, one of two regulars on the Rollins squad with previous experience, has been the mainstay of the squad this season. The Rollins starting lineup includes three freshmen this season.

DICK HAS AVERAGED 16.9 rebounds per game while handling most of the backboard work for the Tars.

Coach Dan Nyimicz of Rollins has high respects for Bezemer's talent. His only regrets are that he does not have another tall man on the squad so that he can make better use of the Kingston boy's outside shooting and rebounding skill by shifting him back to forward.

"Dick has outstanding floor play talents," Nyimicz says. "On a good big squad he would be most valuable as a forward or even as a guard."

Bezemer averaged 23 points a contest in his senior year at Kingston High School in 1953-54 while winning All-DUSO honors.

Harold Anderson, new president of the Little League Association, made the big news at the National LL dinner this week.

He told his listeners that LLA would institute a farm system and get an earlier start on the 1956 season.

The first item is significant and creates something that has been needed for a long time—the so-called minor league. The "farm" league would develop Little League talent and accommodate youngsters who flunk their first LL tryout. Two teams are planned uptown and two downtown.

Most localities that operate Little League baseball use the farm system. Getting an earlier start is another good Anderson idea. Kingston leagues invariably start much later than area outfits with the result they find themselves crowded and rushed around tournament and playoff time.

Mr. Anderson appears to have grasped his new duties in good stride. He succeeds two outstanding men in the LL presidential dynasty—Robert Umpleby and William R. Scully. From what we have observed to date, he will be a worthy successor.

Flotsam and Jetsam:

Bill Thomas, who purchased and assembled all the beautiful trophies for the American and National Little League banquets, missed the National dinner, an expectant father. . . . Judge Louis C. Bruhn reminisced of his early baseball career and said small fry had to fight harder to keep their games going. Sgt. Thomas Tomshaw said Little Leaguers were playing with major league material. The judge also pointed out that survey of juvenile tendencies by groups revealed that newboys had the lowest rate of juvenile delinquency. Proving, he said, that if a boy keeps himself busy enough working and playing he won't find much time to get in trouble.

Of Men and Mice:

By the end of the 1955-56 bowling season, Jimmy Amendola will have moved into the elite group. . . . What's this about challenge match brewing between Rheingold Beer and Tony's Pizzeria. . . . Big rap pros have against Big Ten basketball: Big Ten players try to do a solo. They are rugged individuals who don't like to pass. They simply run and shoot and defense is neglected. Ozzie Covles of Minnesota is the only coach in the Big Ten who plays possession-type game. . . . Bob Saehloff is preparing the high links for Lake Katrine Rod and Gun banquet on Feb. 4. . . . Whitey Crispell rates a salute for the tremendous job he did recruiting entries for the KBA tournament. Poughkeepsie Bowling Association has 100-team goal for New York state tournament to cement its bid for the 1957 state tenpin classic. About a dozen Kingston squads will compete.

Monty Stickle, the Poughkeepsie High School basketball great, needs only 43 points to become the first 1,000-point player in Pioneer history. KHS records are vague on 1,000-point performers, although Big Ed Weaver, Ronnie Scheffel and Skip Brodhead might be close. But Coach G. Warren Kias was never one to permit individual heroics to come before team performance. . . . Who said the New York-New Jersey Semi-Pro League was a flop? The bank account showed a balance of $140.16 at the end of the 1955 season. If the league reorganizes it will be without the guiding genius and perseverance of its ex-president, Mayor William D. Ryan, who is luxuriously ensconced in city hall at the Hill City. . . . And without Mr. Ryan, there is no NY-NJ League.

Wings Beat Rangers, 3-2, Gain 2nd Place

(By The Associated Press) Don't count the surging Detroit Red Wings out of the running for their eighth straight National Hockey League title.

The Wings, winners of the last seven regular season championships, took over undisputed possession of second place last night by defeating the New York Rangers 3-2 while the league-leading Montreal Canadiens were losing to the Boston Bruins 5-1.

THE TRIUMPH moved Detroit, which trailed first-place Montreal by 20 points three weeks ago, to within 12 points of the Canadiens. And the Red Wings have two more games remaining to play than the pacesetters which conceivably could add four more points into their total.

The Wings grabbed a 3-0 lead and then barely hung on against the scrappy Rangers. The New Yorkers came through with second-period goals by Andy Heberton and Andy Bathgate after Bill Dineen, Gordie Howe and Red Kelly had registered for Detroit.

Lapchick Quits Knicks

New York, Jan. 27 (AP)—Joe Lapchick resigned today as coach of the New York Knickerbockers of the National Basketball Association, a post he had held since 1947. He will finish out the season with the club, however.

Lapchick's resignation came after he had failed to get the Knickerbockers out of a slump that had dropped them deep into third place in the league's Eastern division. The Knicks, with a squad regarded as one of the strongest in the NBA, got off to a good start this season, but their current record shows only 21 victories and 20 defeats, leaving them 6½ games behind the pace-setting Philadelphia Warriors.

Ned Irish, executive president of Madison Square Garden, owner of the club, expressed dissatisfaction with the Knicks' recent performances, saying they should have a .600 average instead of barely topping .500.

Lapchick, a former pro star with the famed Original Celtics, became Knickerbocker coach in 1947 after a successful career as a college coach at St. John's University in Brooklyn. In eight seasons prior to this year, he has seen the Knicks finish first in their division twice, only to lose out in the championship playoffs.

BOWLING SCORES

John Ferraro, Sr., was well on his way to another 700 series last night in the Major League which bears his name.

But after pounding games of 276 and 237, the old pro of the alleys skidded to 170. However, he still wound up with the highest score of the night, 683.

Ferraro's score highlighted some heavy hitting, including a 672 by George Shufeldt. In all, five keglers bettered the 600 mark, and a number of others narrowly missed.

SHUFELDT'S SERIES was tallied in the opposite manner of Ferraro's. Shufeldt progressed with 191-233-248.

Bob Birchall pegged 212-201-224-637, Leo Bechtold 212-243-186-621, and Whitey Crispell 198-215-202-615.

Jackie Ferraro pitched 200-246-599, Bill Lawrence 225-588, Larry Weishaupt 213-234-597, Bruce Davis 202-210-581, Vern Van Dusen 576, John Bailey 554, Charley Manfro 207-561, Ray Wilson 210-207-585, Harry Wilber 202-556, Randy Kelder 567, Dick Howard 552, Elwood Robinson 222-551, Ed Heins 556, Chris Gallo 223-573, Buster Ferraro 235-584, Boots Leskie 206-204-573.

The Hercules team posted the top total, 2924, yet lost two games to Ferraro and his Nadler Motors crew, which came up with 2902.

Port Routs NFA, 93-65, Moving Kingston Into 3rd

Port Jervis handed Newburgh Free Academy its soundest shellacking in many a season Wednesday night, defeating the NFA visitors 93-65 in a DUSO League basketball game.

In another DUSO tilt, Middletown downed Ellenville, 78-68.

The victory kept Port in second place, a full game behind Poughkeepsie. Kingston moved into third with its 5-2 record as Newburgh (5-3) dropped down a peg. Port has a 7-1 record and Poughkeepsie 8-0.

Port, canning 30 of 57 field goals in a splendid shooting display, won with almost ridiculous ease.

The winners had 23-15, 41-24, and 79-41 leads at the quarter stops.

ALEX OSOWICK and Dick Pencsek scored 22 apiece for the Red and Black. Ed Mack added 16, Joe Regelski 14 and Steve Fuchylo 10.

Al Beccaccio had 19 and Ralph Cook 18 for Newburgh.

Gordie Berthoff, Charley Springfield and Sherk Myers engineered the Middies' conquest of Ellenville with 17, 16 and 16 points respectively.

Frank Gallo had 24, Mike Tannenbaum 15 and Lee Roberts 12 for the Ellies.

New York (Sunnyside Garden) — Angelo Defendis, 166, Brooklyn, stopped Jimmy Garcia, 163, Puerto Rico 2.

THIS BARBER BUSINESS....

Kingston, N. Y., Jan. 27—This barber business is a completely baffling one. We have men coming in for everything from a crew cut to a long styled ducktail. Believe me, we have to keep up on our men's hair styling as much as in our beauty shop.

However, our standard haircuts still hold forth—but our barbers (3 on Friday and Saturday) are well schooled to cut your hair as you wish.

MICKEY'S Barber and Beauty Shop, 50 N. Front St. Phone 3275. Closed Mondays.

Experience that money can't buy!

A man doesn't advance very far or very fast from experience alone... that experience must be coupled with professional development and recognition by superiors... and a man who is only "holding his own" while others are advancing is actually losing ground.

Professional development is dependent upon many factors:

- Association with recognized technical leaders.
- Recognition of individual contribution through merit review, publication of technical papers and technical society membership.
- Participation in management decisions and planning.
- The availability of a continuing formal educational program.
- The guidance of a young, technically trained management.
- A flexibility of operation where you can plan your use of time.
- A major responsibility rather than a minor detailed job.

At Univac,* you will learn and grow with the men who evolved much of the basic knowledge of computers... who designed and produced components being used by other manufacturers in the field... who set the standards that the others follow... THIS is the opportunity and the experience that money can't buy. All of these positions offer a unique opportunity for advancement because of Univac's expansion... our present facilities are running to capacity... new plants and laboratories are under construction.

NOW is the time to come to Remington Rand Univac where ambition and professional skill find their reward... advancement comes quickest in an expanding organization.

South Not So Hot...

The weather maps below give you the U. S. Weather Bureau's long range forecast from now until mid-February. It is not a specific forecast in the usual sense, but an ESTIMATE of average temperatures and rain or snowfall for the period.

Temperatures until mid-February will average above seasonal normals west of the Mississippi. In the East, generally below normal temperatures are expected.

Precipitation up to mid-February is expected to be subnormal in the southern half of the nation. Above normal is predicted for the Northeast, Northwest and Rocky Mountain states.

Enough Votes Are Seen to Store Up Cotton and Wheat

Washington, Jan. 27 (AP)—Supporters of a proposal to shift part of the government's farm surpluses into a "strategic reserve" today claimed enough votes for its approval by the Senate Agriculture Committee.

Chairman Ellender (D-La.) and other members of the group drafting an election year farm bill conceded that Office of Defense Mobilization (ODM) officials gave the plan a cool reception in testimony yesterday.

"BUT I THINK we have enough votes to lock up some two million bales of cotton and 250 to 300 million bushels of wheat" for use only in war or emergency, the chairman told newsmen.

The defense stockpile of farm surpluses is one of numerous proposals offered as supplements to the soil bank farm program of President Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Benson.

Benson, in a Johnstown, Pa., speech last night, urged farmers to write their congressmen that they want the administration's program passed before planting time this spring.

HE SAID he is confident most farmers, regardless of party, will support the program if they study the ways it would affect them.

Sen. Williams (R-Del.) called, meantime, for an accurate estimate of the program's cost, saying "I can't vote for the soil bank bill until I know the price tag." Backers of the defense stockpile plan say it would offset price-depressing effects of the more than eight billion dollars worth of farm surpluses now in government hands.

THEY ALSO contend that multimillion dollar storage and handling costs then could be charged to national defense instead of to farm programs, while conceding that would make no difference to the taxpayers.

Victor E. Cooley, acting director, and other ODM experts were called into the closed-door committee sessions late yesterday.

"THEY APPARENTLY have no interest in a stockpile of agricultural products for defense," Sen. Young (R-N.D.) told reporters later.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) also reported "no enthusiasm" for the farm stockpile for defense and added that the ODM officials may be right.

Sen. Mundt (R-S.D.), was more hopeful, saying ODM agreed to supply later estimates on strategic agricultural needs based on a possible reduction of farm production and present surpluses.

Ellender called for closed-door discussion today of price support levels.

In 1954 the Eisenhower administration won approval of flexible supports after a stiff congressional fight. Last year the Democratic-controlled House voted to junk them and return to the higher rigid supports that had operated since World War 2.

Some senators believe a majority of the Senate committee now is lined up in favor of making high rigid supports part of the omnibus farm bill.
